

The British School of Lomé was pleased to welcome Dr Roy Lillyman, a Senior Educational Consultant, based in the UK, for a visit to the School this week, ahead of an Educational Conference later this term which would be hosted by BSL.

Dr. Roy, together with our Head of School Ms Elizabeth Minnigin and other Senior Staff members of BSL, paid a visit to the renowned Kailend Farm near Mount Agou, Togo.

CONFERENCE IN DECEMBER.

Samuel Sarr, one of our BSL alumni, pictured here between Dr Lillyman and Ms Alison Mills, BSL Head of Primary, is the Founder and Executive Director of Kailend Farm.

Kailend Farm is a dynamic, forward thinking social enterprise striving to Engage, Empower & Educate impoverished communities in Togo.

See @KailendOrg on Twitter and @Kailend on Instagram for further information.

Dr Lillyman also visited Kanal 93.5 FM where he spoke on the 'English Within Your Reach' talk show, hosted by Samuella Tyr, a young Togolese Lawyer with a passion for the English language.

He gave a very insightful talk on the future of education, and how Teachers needed to keep being passionate about their work, investing in themselves in order to build the leaders of tomorrow.

They also presented a bouquet on behalf of the School.

BSL has had a wonderful relationship with Ramco since it was established. Our condolences to the family and workers of Ramco.

A forum with Mrs Elisabeth Fitzsimmons, the American Ambassador to Togo

Professor Guy Missodey, a BSL Language and Literature Teacher, and a well known member of the academic community in Togo, was invited to contribute to a forum organised by the American Embassy here in Togo.

The forum was about promoting the education of Girls and young Women in the areas of Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics. Recommendations from the forum were given to Mme Cina Lawson, Togo's Minister for Digital Economy.

BSL International Weekend- Parents' Corner

Staff and students of BSL are starting to prepare for our BSL International Weekend 2022. After a long period of not being able to celebrate this very special event due to the covid-19 outbreak, BSL is very much looking forward to sharing this year's celebration with parents.

We would like parents and all members of the BSL Community to contribute to making this year's celebration a once in a life time's experience.

Parents and Carers can donate to our raffle, work on national costumes and dishes and so much more. We look forward to hearing from you with any suggestions and to sharing more details with you in the coming weeks.

OUR 40TH ANNIVERSARY!!

As part of our preparations for the BSL 40th anniversary year (2023-2024), we would like to ask for parents' contributions over the course of this academic year to create a BSL Community, 40 Years Anniversary Recipe book!

Please send your pictures and recipes with a sentence or two to explain why you have chosen that recipe, e.g, it's a family favourite in our country etc.

Please send these recipes, pictures, using the email address below:

40thanniversary@bsl.tg

There is already a lively discussion going on about the best recipe for jollof rice!
